Rogers v. Cafebelle.NYC, LLC & 280 Mulberry Realty LLC, No. 1:19-cv-06032-PAE-JLC
(S.D.N.Y. filed June 27, 2019)

Dear Judge Engelmayer:

I have been recently engaged by defendant Cafebelle.NYC, LLC and am in the process of arranging for engagement by co-defendant 280 Mulberry Realty LLC as well. This is a case under the Americans with Disabilities Act against a pastry shop and its landlord.

I have communicated with the attorney for plaintiff, Bradly G. Marks, Esq., and this letter is written with Mr. Marks's consent including to the relief sought.

Per your Order dated October 8, 2019 (ECF Doc. No. 15), a hearing on plaintiff's motion for default judgment has been scheduled for November 21, 2019 at 2:30 p.m.

Mr. Marks has consented to waive any default by the defendants and to extend their time to respond to the complaint for 30 days. An appropriate stipulation to this effect will be submitted upon confirmation of my representation of the co-defendant (or its appearance by separate counsel if that be the case).

Accordingly the parties request that the hearing be cancelled and that the case proceed as outlined above, with a response to the complaint due December 20, 2019.

Hon. Paul A. Engelmayer

Granted. The conference scheduled for November 21, 2019 is adjourned. The motion pending at Docket 12 is denied as moot. Defendants' request for an extension of 30 days to respond to the complaint is granted.

SO ORDERED.

PAUL A. ENGELMAYER
United States District Judge
